Pine Mountain Sand & Gravel Literary Journal: A reading from Volume 18: The Dead

Abstract: Join us for a lively and enlightening reading from the current issue of Pine Mountain Sand & Gravel, the literary journal of the Southern Appalachian Writers Cooperative. Journal contributors will read from Volume 18, The Dead, remembering who and what we have lost as individuals, families and a region. Pine Mountain Sand & Gravel, a literary journal focusing on writers from the Appalachian Mountain region, has been a regular publication since 1984. It has no institutional support, but rather is a grassroots effort of writers, editors and activists from the region. With content ranging from elegy to protest (with even a bit of humor mixed in), this session will move, entertain and inform and provide an opportunity to hear and meet both well-known and emerging Appalachian writers from across the region. The reading will be followed by Q & A about the Southern Appalachian Writers Cooperative's and its journal's past as well as its plans for the future.
